SHORT CALENDAR SESSION
IN SUPERIOR COURT

Three Uncontested Divorces Allowed Here on Friday—Other Matters Before Judge Shumway.

At the short calendar session of the superior court in this city on Friday before Judge Shumway three uncontested divorces were sanctioned and one was postponed. In three other cases the judge took the papers and a number were settled or otherwise disposed of.

Ethra M. Maine, whose maiden name was Taylor and who was married to Howard E. Maine of North Stonington on September 21, 1911, was granted a decree on the grounds of intolerable cruelty and intemperance. Mrs. Maine told her husband of her husband's cruelty and intemperance, threatening her and beating her.

Josephine Burdick was given a divorce from Charles E. Burdick on the grounds of desertion and was allowed to resume her maiden name of Stewart. They were married in Sprague on June 25, 1888, and he left his wife four years ago.

Emma Mary Knipe was given a divorce from Thomas E. Knipe, who married her in North Stonington, Sept. 29, 1911, and later deserted her. She was allowed to resume the name of Kaled. Decision on the action of Frances W. Willett for a divorce from William W. Willett was granted on the court by Judge B. Cone of Norwich for a divorce from Orrin H. Cone. Her maiden name was Heggren, and they were married on Feb. 8, 1907. The charge is intolerable cruelty and desertion. She asks the custody of a 4-year-old son.

In the cases of Harris vs. Benjamin, of the John T. Young Baking company vs. Clinton F. Smith and his wife, and of the Jewett City Savings bank vs. Hendrick et al, the judge took the papers. An allowance of $40 each week from now until the case is tried was allowed Grace L. Snyder Main of North Stonington, pending her divorce suit against Leonard R. Main. Two weeks were allowed for answers in the cases of Garret vs. Bogue, Ochulinski vs. Harocco and Lewis vs. Pease. An allowance of $35 to defend was made in the divorce action of Stephen C. Penn against Effie May Palmer Penn. Judge Shumway granted leave to amend complaint in the action of Wilfred O. Stanton vs. Nellie Stanton, and in the Main divorce case three weeks were allowed to bring in a more particular statement. Torrette admrs. vs. the Union Power company, Luce vs. the Nanticoke Menhaden Oil and Guano company, and Spottswood admrs. vs. the Connecticut company. These jury cases were assigned for the week after Christmas, when the court, with jury, comes in again.

Jury Cases Assigned.
These jury cases were assigned for week after week:
Dec. 31—C. Mottock vs. Norwich, Victory vs. New London and Northern Railroad company.
Jan. 1—G. E. Cooney vs. Donahue, J. J. Cooney vs. Donahue.
Jan. 2—Corton and others vs. Smith and wife.

The court went out at 1.15 until Dec. 31.
For the court without jury there is business on Dec. 24th.

A Webster man has the contract to build a residence in Pomfret for Miss Beatrice Stevens, artist, of New York. The house will cost about $10,000.

NEWARK NEWS

"NOW, MIND YOUR STEP!"

THE SALVATION ARMY'S CHRISTMAS DINNER.

Captain and Mrs. Wilbur Rely Upon the Support of the People of Norwich.

Captain and Mrs. Wilbur present this forceful statement of the present work of the Salvation Army's big Christmas dinner and how much it means to the half, the maimed, the sick, the blind, the naked, the hungry, the destitute and the unfortunate in general:

It means good tidings and healing to the broken-hearted, and comfort to those that mourn, joy for ashes, and unspeakable gratitude and praise for heaviness and loneliness. His eye who said "the poor ye have with you always," and also said "when I was hungry ye fed Me, and thirsty ye gave Me drink, and sick ye ministered unto Me, and in prison ye visited Me."

He alone knows the length, the breadth, the depth, the height it means to those whom the Master said "ye have with you always." And His eyes, which never slumber, will see every effort and all labor, and every donation given, and every offering dropped in the kettles on the streets, and will reward abundantly for every gift of every kind accordingly.

So these last few days we appeal to everybody to share a portion. I believe that Norwich will do her share to fill every sorrowful home with joy and comfort and sunshine. We hope and believe all to whom appeals have been sent to will return the same with a donation. We need chickens, butter, tea, coffee, sugar, pies, bread, potatoes, celery, etc. We rely upon the friends and all citizens who always have supported every worthy cause to support us in this Christmas effort, and may God add His richest blessing which is no sorrow and no grief, but many glad, to Norwich, in every effort and prayer of our hearts, and a happy, merry Christmas to every and all people. All checks can be sent to Captain E. Wilbur, 2 Lincoln court.

Dr. Spaulding Gave Memorial Address.
At a service held in memory of Rev. Robert G. Seymour, D. D., in the Ruggles street Baptist church in Boston last Sunday the memorial address was preached by Dr. Charles H. Spaulding, at one time a resident of Norwich, and a lifelong friend of Dr. Seymour.

John D. Murphy Chosen.
Among the class officers elected by the senior class at Wesleyan university this week was John D. Murphy of this city as a member of the class day committee and as a member of the senior picnic committee.

This season has been favorable for orchard owners, and there has been much trimming and treating of trees.
